

(4) Information Literacy

Information Literacy

Course Number	Course Name	授業方法	Credits	Standard Academic Year	Course Offering Term	Weekday and Period	Classroom	Instructor	Course Overview	Remarks
6190101	Information Literacy (Lectures)	1	1.0	1	Fall A	Tue3, 4	3A405	Simona Mirela Vasilache	This course teaches basic knowledge of computers, the Internet and the social positioning of computers. Students learn how computer systems are made, about the structure of the Internet, information security, as well as intellectual property rights and information ethics.	For Students in English Program. Lectures are conducted in English.
6490102	Information Literacy (Exercises)	2	1.0	1	Fall B	Tue3, 4	3D207	Simona Mirela Vasilache	This course teaches fundamental skills for computer use. By using computers to create documents and presentations, disseminate information on the Internet and share information, students acquire basic information utilization skills.	For Students in English Program. Lectures are conducted in English.
6590102	Data Science	2	2.0	1	SprAB	Tue3, 4		Simona Mirela Vasilache	This course teaches students about basic concepts of data science and fundamental techniques for data collection, management and analysis. Students will acquire practical methods for data utilization. Through concrete examples from data science, they will also develop an understanding of how data is used in society.	For Students in English Program. Lectures are conducted in English.